5. Schedule of supports

This agreement commits both parties to the provision of the supports set out in Schedule of Supports by Child Development Institute (please refer to Appendix A - Schedule of Supports).

Children enrolled in the Inclusion Readiness Program (IRP) must maintain a minimum of two-day enrolment in the program and one 1:1 ESDM Clinic. If availability at the time of enrolment prevents this enrolment pattern from occurring, it is expected that additional days or service will be picked up upon availability. If a child withdraws from IRP, they are also required to withdraw from their 1:1 ESDM clinic.

At any stage CDI's clinical team may waive this enrolment pattern commitment if it is reflective and supportive of the individual child's therapy needs.

Enrolment in School Readiness Program, ESDM in Mainstream, Speech Therapy and Feeding Therapy programs do not have a minimum day or two program enrolment pattern commitment.

Both parties agree to the NDIA support references identified in the schedule for the package supports.

6. Responsibilities of the Provider

The provider agrees to:

- I. Review the provision of supports at least 3 monthly with the Participant.
- II. Once agreed, provide supports that meet the Participant's needs at the agreed times.

Initial here:

- III. Communicate openly and honestly in a timely manner.
- IV. Treat the Participant with courtesy and respect.
- V. Consult the Participant on decisions about how supports are provided.
- VI. Listen to the Participant's feedback and resolve problems quickly.
- VII. Give the Participant the required notice if the provider needs to end the Service Agreement (see '145. Ending this Service Agreement' below for more information).
- VIII. Protect the Participant's privacy and confidential information.
- IX. Provide supports in a manner consistent with all relevant Australian laws.
- X. Keep accurate records on the supports provided to the Participant.
- XI. Issue regular invoices and statements of the supports delivered to the Participant.

7. Responsibilities of the Participant/Participant's Representative

The Participant/Participant's representative agrees to:

- I. Inform the provider about how they wish the supports to be delivered to meet the Participant's needs.
- II. Treat the provider with courtesy and respect.
- III. Talk to the provider if the Participant has any concerns about the supports being provided.
- IV. Follows the cancellation policy as outlined (see '1011. Cancellations' below for more information).
- V. Give the provider the required notice if the Participant needs to end the Service Agreement (see '145. Ending this Service Agreement' below for more information).
- VI. Let the provider know immediately if the Participant's NDIS plan is suspended or replaced by a new NDIS plan or the Participant stops being a Participant in the NDIS.

8. Payments

9.1. Self-Managed Plan:

The Participant has chosen to self-manage the funding for NDIS supports provided under this Service Agreement. Payments are made following the delivery of service and must be made in accordance with the Payment Policy outlined in Appendix B - Payment Policy.

Self-Managed Participants acknowledge that they have read, understood and agree to the Child Development Institute Payment Policy (See Appendix B - Payment Policy).

9.2 Plan Managed:

The Participant's Nominee manages the funding for supports provided under this Service Agreement. The Participant will provide the Child Development Institute with the contact details of their Plan Manager prior to commencing services. After providing services, the Child Development Institute will send the Participant's Nominee an invoice for those services acquired.

Payments must be made in accordance with the Payment Policy outlined in Appendix B - Payment Policy.

Plan Managed Participants acknowledge that they have read, understood and agree to the Child Development Institute Payment Policy (See Appendix B - Payment Policy).

Initial here:

Any difference between published NDIS price guide rates and the published CDI fees may be payable by the Participant.

9. Attendance and Release of Liability

The Participant and Participant's Representative acknowledges that they have read, understood and agree to the Child Development Institute Attendance and Release of Liability Form (see Appendix C - Attendance and Release of Liability Form).

10. Cancellations

Participants are required to pay the full fee for all cancelled services. Notice of non-attendance is still required and should be made to the following email address:

Northern Beaches: northernbeaches@cdinstitute.com.au

Should the Child Development Institute need to cancel an agreed service, arrangements will be made to reschedule the service with another therapist. Should a rescheduled service not be possible, no costs will be charged to the Participant's package.

11. Fees and Charges

Support fees are set with consideration to the latest National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) Price List for NSW and are GST inclusive (if applicable).

Additional expenses (i.e. items that are not included as part of the Participant's NDIS package) are the responsibility of the package recipient or the Participants representative to pay. These are listed and agreed in the Schedule of Supports (Appendix A - Schedule of Supports).

12.1. Late Pick Up from Service Charge

Within any given calendar year, parents/carers who collect the Participant outside the agreed therapy times will:

- I. On the first occasion (if under 15 minutes) receive a written warning
- II. On the second, third and fourth occasion a charge of $15 per block of 15 minutes or part thereof
- III. On the fifth occasion, receive a charge of $15 per block of 15 minutes or part thereof and their position at the centre may be terminated

Late pick up charges will automatically be added to the Participant's account (Late fees are not claimable via NDIS).

12. Goods and Services Tax (GST)

For the purpose of GST legislation, the Parties confirm the points listed are true and therefore all service costs may be GST exempt.

13. Changes to Agreed Schedule of Supports

The parties agree that any changes to the schedule of supports will be in writing, signed, and dated by the parties.

Initial here:

14. Ending this Service Agreement

Should either party wish to end this Service Agreement they must give twenty (20) business days' written notice during terms 1, 2 and 3; or forty (40) business days' written notice after week 2 of term 4.

If either party seriously breaches this Service Agreement the requirement of notice may be waived.

Should a Participant or Participant's representative wish to end the service agreement, they will be required to pay the full fee for all services booked during the twenty (20) business day exit period; or forty (40) business day exit period after the week 2 of term 4.

The Child Development Institute reserves the right to terminate enrolment if a family is verbally or physically threatening to staff; does not adhere to minimum enrolment patterns; or does not adhere to their signed service agreement.

15. CCTV/Photography/Video

The Participant and the Participant's representative acknowledge that CCTV is installed throughout the address of the Child Development Institute. The installed CCTV documents and records video and audio.

The purpose of the CCTV is as follows;

- I. To give families the ability to observe their child during a 1:1 therapy session.
- II. For internal purposes.
- III. For child protection.

Any CCTV footage that is downloaded by the Child Development Institute will adhere to our privacy policy below and will not be shared with any persons or organisations outside of the Child Development Institute without the written authorisation of the Participant or Participant's representative.

The Participant's representative may verbally request to watch the Participant's scheduled service using a device provided by the Child Development Institute whilst they are on the premises of the scheduled service. The Child Development Institute has the right of refusal to this request for any or all of the services it provides.

The CCTV cannot be recorded by any Participant's representatives at any time. If the Participant's representative wishes to record a Participant's service, they may do so by verbal request and agreement by the Child Development Institute's representative. The approval of this request puts into place the following agreement;

- I. The Participant's representative must be present in the room during the scheduled service.
- II. The Participant's representative must use their own device for the recording.
- III. The Participant's representative acknowledges and agrees it is their sole responsibility for the quality of the recording.
- IV. The recording cannot be made by member of the Child Development Institute.
- V. The recording cannot be shared with anyone outside the Participants immediate family.
- VI. The recording cannot be shared via;
 - i. Social Media Platforms.

Initial here:

- ii. Any internet services.
 - iii. Any organisations outside of the Child Development Institute.
- VII. Breach of this agreement will result in immediate legal action taken against the Participant or the Participant's representative.

16. Child Development Institute Representative's

The Child Development Institute may, at its discretion, subcontract any or all services that it may provide to the participant eg. Specialist consultants to the program. When sub-contracting these services that are delivered within the Child Development Institute, those sub-contractors are considered a representative of the Child Development Institute, and as such all policies and procedures will apply to the representative as would a normal employee of the Child Development Institute.

17. Privacy

The Participant and Participant's Representative acknowledges that they have read, understood and agree to the Child Development Institute Privacy Policy (see Appendix D - Privacy Policy).

18. Outcomes

The Child Development Institute implements a variety of techniques to provide the best services. Outcomes of these techniques may vary between Participants. The Child Development Institute is committed to achieving the very best results for the Participant however can under no circumstances guarantee or warrant any or all results are achievable.

19. Time Bar

Any claims towards the Child Development institute must be made in writing within five (5) business days of any claimable incidents taking place (please see Appendix C - Attendance and Release of Liability Form).

20. Applicable Law

The law of New South Wales applies to the Service Agreement between the Child Development Institute and the Participant & Participant's Representative for the execution of the services and the Courts of that state or the Commonwealth shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine any dispute arising in any manner in respect to the services or the agreement the parties irrevocably agree that the venue for any determination shall be Sydney, New South Wales.

21. Feedback, Complaints and Disputes

If the Participant or Participant's representative wishes to give the provider feedback or is not happy with the provision of support, the Participant should direct their feedback to the Centre Coordinator.

If the Participant is not satisfied or does not want to talk to the Centre Coordinator, they can request to discuss any matter directly with the Child Development Institutes Operation Manager or Operations and Marketing Director. In this instance, the Centre Coordinator will forward the participants contact details to the relevant Manager for their action.

Initial here:

If the Participant is still not satisfied or does not want to talk to these people, they can contact the following;

- I. The National Disability Insurance Agency by calling 1800 800 110, visiting one of their offices in person, or visiting ndis.gov.au for further information.
- II. The NSW Ombudsman by calling 1800 451 524, visiting one of their offices in person, or visiting ombo.nsw.gov.au for further information.

22. Updates to Service Agreements

The Child Development Institute has the right to update this Service Agreement from time to time. Any and all updates to this Service Agreement will be available through our website at www.cdinstitute.com.au/service-agreements/ or on request. Participants will be notified of any updates to the Service Agreement at least 14 days before they are implemented.

9. Access to Participant information and correction

The following will apply regarding accessing personal and private information by a Participant:

A Participant has the right to request access their own personal information and request a copy or part of the whole record.

Participants have the right to obtain their personal information in accordance with the Federal Privacy Act from 20 December 2001 onwards. Requests must be made in writing and an acknowledgement letter will be sent to the Participant within 14 days confirming the request and detailing whether the request can be complied with and an indication of any costs associated with providing the information. Time spent and photocopying costs when processing a request can be passed on to the requesting Participant. Information can be expected to be provided within 30 days.

While the Participant is not required to give a reason for obtaining the information, a Participant may be asked to clarify the scope of the request.

In some instances, the request to obtain information may be denied, in these instances the Participant will be advised.

The Child Development Institute will take reasonable steps to correct personal information where it is satisfied they are not accurate or up to date. From time to time the Child Development Institute will ask Participants and Participant representatives to verify the personal information held by the Child Development Institute is correct and up to date.

Participants and Participant representatives may also request the Child Development Institute corrects or updates their information and Participants and Participant representatives should make such requests in writing. Upon request by the Participant, the information held by this service will be made available to another service.

10. Parents/Guardians and Children

To protect the rights of a child's privacy, access to a child's information may at times be restricted for parents and guardians. Release of information may be referred back to the Child Development Institute where their professional judgement and the law will be applied.

11. Complaints

The management of Child Development Institute understands the importance of confidentiality and discretion in the way we manage and maintain the personal information of our Participants. The Child Development Institute takes complaints and concerns about the privacy of Participant personal information seriously. Participants and Participant representatives should express any privacy concerns in writing. The Child Development Institute will then attempt to resolve it in accordance with its complaint resolution process.

All representatives of Child Development Institute are required to observe the obligations of confidentiality and are required to sign Confidentiality Agreements.

In the instance where you are dissatisfied with the level of service provided within the Child Development Institute, we encourage you to discuss any concerns relating to the privacy of your information with the Child Development Institute Manager.

If the complaint has not been resolved to your level of satisfaction all complaints should be directed to:
